Notes:

Arrived on location at 17:05. 27 degrees F, dusk, NW wind 5-15 mph. Walked the area and took photos. It appeared that the release occurred near the loading box closest to the oil storage tanks. New soil/scoria had been placed at the initial release point (loading box) in an area approximately 15' wide traveling downgradient to the secondary containment (south of the tanks) and into a ditch area just west of the secondary containment approximately 40'. Visual observations of the area and new soil/scoria did not show any petroleum impacts. It is unknown as to whether impacted soil/scoria was removed or just covered. GPS coordinates of the release site were: 46.90221, -103.29421. More followup is needed.
